

California Notice at Collection

Last Updated / Effective Date 04/30/2025

Air Distribution Technologies, Inc. (“Air Distribution”) respects your privacy. This California Notice at Collection (“Notice”) is intended to give you information regarding how we collect, use, and share your Personal Information. In this Notice, we describe the categories of Personal Information we collect, the purposes for which we collect and use that Personal Information, and when we “share” or disclose your Personal Information as defined under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended and its implementing regulations (“CCPA”).

For purposes of this Notice, “Personal Information” means information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. Personal Information excludes publicly available information, deidentified or aggregated consumer information, or information that is otherwise excluded under the definition of Personal Information under the CCPA.

The CCPA broadly defines “sell” or “sale” as the sharing of personal information (including information that does not directly identify an individual) in exchange for anything of value, which isn’t limited to the exchange of money. “Share” is defined narrowly as providing personal information to a third party for cross-context behavioral advertising to a consumer based on information about their activity on multiple websites across the internet.

We collect Personal Information as described in the following table. We do not “sell” or “share” Personal Information as defined in the CCPA.
